

you, Senator Labedz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Let's don't over do it, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I think you're right. There's a verse that often is quoted about the lion lying down with the lamb. I won't say which of us occupies which role because although some people refer to Senator Labedz, kindly, grandmotherly trait, some people say more like Mata Hari than that lady in India, but anyway, if the lion does lie down with the lamb, somebody said the lamb won't do too much sleeping. So, Senator Labedz, I assure you this is probably the last time we will agree on this one, but nevertheless, I want to enjoy it while I can.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Any further discussion? Senator Schimek, do you wish to close on your amendment?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Schimek waives closing. We will now proceed to vote on the amendment as offered by Senator Schimek. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Schimek's amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: The amendment is adopted. While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign LB 853, LB 234, LB 218 and LB 159. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Will would move to amend. The amendment is on page 1571 of the Journal.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Will.

SENATOR WILL: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, my amendment to LB 425 is essentially along the lines of the amendment that we adopted yesterday from Senator Withem. Mine would basically be a specific application of the concept that was put forth by the Withem amendment. If you remember, Senator Withem had an amendment successfully adopted to the bill which essentially has a school district provide yearly information regarding this law to individuals in certain grades. What my
